The political party for people, animals and the environment

"I'm a psychotherapist by training, an author and a mother of three. For the past five years I've run Smallwood Toad Patrols, a dynamic group of 53 conservation volunteers monitoring vulnerable common toad populations locally. During that time I've fallen in love with this beautiful area and I would work hard for the people, animals and environment of Smallwood if I was elected as a councillor on 4th May."

Jane Smith

AWP Candidate for Smallwood Parish Council

As a parish councillor Jane's priorities would include:

- ✓ Enhancing biodiversity across Smallwood
- ✓ Improving opportunities for young people
- ✓ Raising awareness around wildlife crime
- ✓ Campaigning against fly-tipping
- ✓ Protecting the area's water courses
- ✓ Opposing inappropriate 'development'
- ✓ Promoting climate resilience
- ✓ Improving rural access to mental health support

Let's Create a Sustainable Future for All.
