SHOWING SCOTLAND CARES FOR ALL, NOW & INTO THE FUTURE

Thousands of animals, including imported, endangered long-tailed macaques are still used in animal experiments in Scotland.

Animal Welfare Party's Vision for Scotland Includes:

- ✓ Proudly leading on ending animal import & testing by using all levers to promote the development of animal-free science in Scotland
- ✓ Improving human health, saving vital NHS funds & acting on climate breakdown by promoting a transition to healthy & sustainable plant-based diets
- ✓ Introducing Animal Welfare & Sentience into the Scottish school curriculum
- ✓ Strengthening existing farmed animal welfare legislation to include farmed fish & crustaceans and halting salmon farm expansion
- ✓ Prioritising companion animal welfare by stopping the sale of animals online & in shops, phasing out the exotic pet trade and making 'pet theft' a specific offence
- ✓ Ending the guga hunt and improving protections for all Scottish seabirds
- ✓ Urgent creation of affordable, social homes whilst ensuring mandatory consideration for wild animals & their habitats in planning legislation
- ✓ Banning the use of farrowing crates for pigs and cages for laying hens & gamebirds
- ✓ Outlawing electric shock collars for Scotland's dogs and ending breed-specific legislation
- ✓ Leading on alternatives to fireworks displays such as laser, drone & light shows, reducing distress for people & animals
